

Calgary Foothills Stake: Ministering Interview Worksheet

Ministering Interviews (General Handbook: 21.3)

The elders quorum president and his counselors interview ministering brothers. The Relief Society president and her counselors interview ministering sisters. A married couple assigned to minister together can meet with elders quorum or Relief Society leaders or both.

These interviews are held at least once each quarter. They may be held at any time during the quarter. Preferably, interviews are held in person and with both members of the companionship. Youth with ministering assignments should be included if possible.

Sample Ministering Interview Questions

Ministering Assignment

- Do the family members have personal prayers and personal scripture study?
- Are there any sickness or health (including mental health) issues in the family?
- Are the members of the family participating in Temple & Family History Work? Do they need assistance?
- How can our presidency better help those to who you minister enjoy the blessings of the temple?
- Do members have any troubles feeding their family? Is there food in their cupboards now?
- Are all members of the family, that want or need to be, gainfully employed?
- Are all members of the family Baptized and hold the appropriate priesthood?
If not, what is the ministering companionships doing to help them get there?
- Who is the family working with in terms of missionary work (and/or reactivation)? Do they need any assistance?
- How are family members doing in their callings? Do they need assistance?

Ministering Companionship

- Do you pray for and seek revelation for your families?
- What inspiration have you received to help serve them better?
- Have you been able to act on that inspiration and, if so, with what results?
- How well is your companionship working together?
Are you able to collaborate in contacting and serving your family?
- Does the companionship meet and pray together about their families?
- Does the companionship know the names and birthdays of each family member?
- Does the companionship make monthly/regular visits to the home?
Are they welcome?
- What other forms of contact does each companionship member have with each family?
What do you feel is working best?
- How well do you feel you are getting to know your family?
Do you feel that a relationship of trust is developing with them?
What more should you do to foster this?
- What steps do you now plan to take in order to serve your family in a “higher and holier” way?
Are there any steps that our presidency can take to better support you?
